

CedarCreek DreamTeam Descriptions

Joining the CedarCreek DreamTeam is just one way you can begin to make a difference. This list of opportunities is not exhaustive, but it does provide a detailed overview of serving opportunities available during the weekend services as well as during the week. As you think about where you might want to serve, be sure to consider what fits with your schedule and life.

All DreamTeam members will have the opportunity to connect with their Ministry Team to discuss role requirements and any questions you may have.

Administration Team – This team is passionate about using their gifts of administration and organization to promote efficiency and excellence at CedarCreek. They serve the church in areas such as logistics, data entry, mailer and sign preparation, and more. Administrative opportunities are available in practically all ministry areas and are Campus specific. For more information, please see your Campus staff team. (Weekend and flexible weekday opportunities)
